Organization Summary

IllumiNative is a national, Native woman-led racial justice organization fiscally sponsored by New Venture Fund, a 501(c)3 public charity. Founded in 2018, IllumiNative’s mission is to amplify contemporary Native voices, stories and issues to build power for Native peoples to advance justice, equity, and self-determination. IllumiNative works to transform how Americans and key institutions think about and engage with Native peoples in order to fight systemic racism and achieve transformational change for Native communities and future generations. Building power for Native peoples through representation and systems change is the frame, lens and goal of our work. Through interrelated programs of Research, Narrative Change + Impact, Pop Culture + Media, and Movement Building + Organizing, we amplify Native voices, stories, and issues across public platforms, activate support from diverse national audiences, and strengthen the influence and capacity of Native peoples to drive systems change. Each of these programs serves as foundational movement infrastructure to dismantle the systemic racism facing Native peoples and to build power and advance equity and justice for current and future generations.
